People born late in the year have more years of education and higher incomes

Additional years of education have a positive effect on income. The figure uses data from Angrist and Krueger (1991).

© Johan Jarnestad/The Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences