A MUSICAL FEAST CELEBRATING THE RETURN TO THE BLUE HALL

After two years of adapted and customized Nobel Prize celebrations, this year's divertissement is commemorating the return of the festivities to the Blue Hall.

World renowned vocalist, songwriter and opera composer Rufus Wainwright is guiding us through his musical universe, with additions from Benjamin Britten, Tchaikovsky, and traditional Swedish folk music. Joining him on the Blue Hall's majestic staircase is one of Sweden's most praised opera voices, Court Singer Elin Rombo.

Another national treasure, the Swedish Chamber Orchestra, is accompanying the vocalists, all under the baton of Hans Ek. The divertissement is created and directed by Linus Fellbom.
